ABOUT

Some of you may know me as the girl who took a risk at love in season 12 of the reality TV show called Boer Soek 'n Vrou. I am an aspiring entrepreneur with a degree in Industrial Psychology and Labour Relations. I love the event management and hospitality industry. I am a relational person and very passionate about what I believe in. True to my fun, adventurous nature I love trying out new things and my diverse personality leaves me interested in lifestyle, traveling, nature, fitness, food, beauty and fashion. Being an influencer enables me to introduce my followers to amazing brands which they may not have discovered otherwise, and that feeling brings me absolute joy.
