ABOUT

I'm a 24 year old lifestyle blogger and digital marketing strategist. I started my "Instablog" in 2018 as a little outlet for sharing my thoughts, ideas, and crafting. I fell inlove with sharing my thoughts in the most authentic way. My audience interact with me on a personal level and I can advise them on different brands and test products to give my personal opinion. I started my blog/website JanineKi in 2020, where I am able to assist new and upcoming bloggers/influencers on hoe to grow themselves as a personal brand and teach them the importance of digital marketing.
